

Loaned Executive Program

Loaned Executives will have the opportunity to be trained by David Stein, a professional motivational speaker, who has a proven track record of excellence in leadership development, management training and presentation coaching

Benefits to organization:

- Positive community image
- Public recognition as a community leader
- Business contacts
- No cost training for enhancing employee skills

Benefits to participant:

- Leadership training
- Presentation/public speaking skills
- Time management
- Networking opportunities
- Organizational skills
- Team building

Benefits to community:

- Increased contributions to help people in need
- Improved lives through programs that achieve results
- Longview is a better place to live

What Loaned Executives who participated in the program last year said:

"I enjoyed getting to know fellow LE's and the David Stein training was great."

Lori Osborne, Texas Bank & Trust

"The program is excellent. The enthusiasm displayed by everyone involved with the United Way is wonderful."

Seth Pyle, City of Longview

"Awesome program—I was well informed on the agencies, and the overall concept of United Way."

Gloria Leffall, Neiman Marcus